

Cosmetic products

Today

Tomorrow

SAFETY

Obligation for a manufacturer to prepare an information file on its product with a safety assessment

Clearer requirements for safety assessment, e.g. new obligation to include reasoning leading the safety assessor to a particular conclusion

ON THE LABEL

Name and address of the manufacturer or the person responsible for marketing the product

Name and address of a responsible person for compliance with the rules. Clear outline of obligations

Date of minimum durability

Pictogramme indicating the date of minimum durability or

or period when product is safe after opening period when product is safe after opening

All nanomaterials are to be indicated in the list of ingredients. Their names are followed by "nano" e.g. Titanium Dioxide <nano>

NOTIFICATIONS

Manufacturer notifying information on its product to each EU country, e.g. for purpose of medical treatment

Faster notification through the Cosmetic Products Notification Portal. Information can be retrieved within seconds by anti-poison centres in EU-28

CLAIMS

General requirements in line with the legislation on unfair commercial practices

Additional common criteria for claims which may be used on cosmetics. Possibility for national authorities to verify claims e.g. if claim says "48h efficacy", it has to be proven scientifically

SERIOUS UNDESIRABLE EFFECTS

Obligation for a responsible person and/or distributor to inform national authorities.

Obligation for EU countries to share information (also coming from users and health professionals)